A GREAT CHRISTMAS TRADITION

From festive afternoon teas to spectacular window displays, there are a sleigh-full of reasons to visit Bettys this Christmas

Here at Bettys we love Christmas. In fact, it's never not Christmas at Bettys. The New Year's celebrations have barely finished before we're planning our next collection of Yuletide treats. By summer we're making puddings so they can mature deliciously for Christmas day. And all year we're coming up with ways to make a festive visit to one of our six Café Tea Rooms as lovely as it can be.

We hope that whether you're meeting friends or family for a seasonal celebration, taking your pick of the festive treats atop a Lady Betty Afternoon Tea cake stand, or bringing the children to see our Christmas windows, this year's visit to Bettys continues – or starts – a great Christmas tradition.

Christmas Lady Betty Afternoon Tea

We've created the perfect way to celebrate this Christmas – a special festive version of our

Dietary options are available – everyone should be able to enjoy the best of Bettys. Available in Harrogate and York only, from 8th November. Book online at www.bettys.co.uk

What's on the menu?

Tuck into a taste of the continent with our Chicken, Bacon & Cranberry Rösti, make a wish as you take a bite of a Warm Mince Pie, and get cosy away from the cold with a Homemade Mulled Wine – just three of the many seasonal treats on the menu. Available from 7th November

New for 2018: a festive version of our bookable Lady Betty Afternoon Tea

A delicious way to celebrate both Christmas and the start of the Bettys story

THE BETTYS EXPRESS

The centrepiece for this year's window is a brightly coloured Christmas train, laden with gifts. The wagon features the date that the first Bettys opened, 1919, a reminder that next year Bettys celebrates its centenary.

Trains play an important role in our history. Our founder, Frederick Belmont, completed his journey from his native Switzerland to Yorkshire by train, and almost didn't make it to the county at all. Newly arrived in England and unable to speak the language he asked for a train to 'Bratwurst'. A helpful local put him on the train to Bradford.

This year we're celebrating this story the only way we know how – with a delightful hand-crafted train and carriage framed by snowy Alpine peaks. Made from the finest Grand Cru milk chocolate, it honours Frederick's talent as a chocolatier – as well as his chosen mode of travel. Chuff along to Bettys to buy one, or order online.

BETTYS COOKERY SCHOOL

Learn to cook the Bettys way at our award-winning school

If you'd like to bake Christmas classics that will be fondly remembered all year, or create dishes to wow your guests throughout the festive season, it's not too late to brush up on your skills with Bettys Cookery School.

And if you know someone special who would love to become a dab hand at bread, craft dazzling cakes, learn the secrets of some real Bettys favourites, and much more, send them a Bettys Cookery School voucher or book them on a course this Christmas – it's the gift that keeps on giving in the most delectable way.

In 1922, a small newspaper advert in the Yorkshire Post proudly announced the new range of Christmas specialities available from an “exclusive café” in Harrogate. Though only three years old at this point, Bettys already boasted Royal patronage and, what's more, had started sending “beautiful boxes” of chocolates and “artistically decorated” cakes by post – promising “prompt attention” for mail orders. Nearly 100 years may have passed, but we like to think that things haven't changed that much.
